GUESTS:

Sonny and John A. Orlando of the Orlando Baking Company.

OBC is a family organization founded in Castel di Sangro, Italy, in 1872. This original bakery is still in operation today. In 1904, part of the family moved to Cleveland and re-established their Old World ways of baking European classics.

You can help support the hundreds of families that we serve in an imaginative and informative way through the Ronald McDonald Business Forum.

You will have the opportunity to network with dozens of area professionals just like you: Cleveland leaders with a strong sense of community and dedication to the greater good, while learning from the most successful local business owners our region has to offer.
